

Cricket Australia's Six Pillars of Umpiring

Contribution to umpiring and cricket <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He treats problems as challenges to overcome • He is loyal to all involved in the game • His experience is tempered by common sense • He brings these attributes into umpiring • He contributes positively to post-match reviews • He is aware of, and takes responsibility for, being a role model • He understands and uses goal-setting for his personal development 	Commitment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He is able to prioritise in his personal and professional life • He demonstrates desire, passion, and a positive work ethic • He has a sense of humour and he intuitively knows when to use it • He enjoys the process of decision making • His routines have become assimilated into automated actions • His physical and mental routines are secure • He has strategies in place to deal with the unexpected • His mind is uncluttered and prepared for decision making
Preparation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • His movements and signalling are clear, decisive, and considered • His preparation is comprehensive and secure • His knowledge of the Laws and Playing Conditions, and their application, are secure • He practices and prepares professionally 	Personal Presentation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He is physically and mentally fit for the job • He leads a healthy and balanced life • He promotes a positive image of himself and umpiring • His body language and attitude are positive • His personal presentation is professional in all contexts
Self Awareness <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • His routines intuitively trigger actions when needed • He uses Information Technology (IT) to set and review SMART targets • He takes responsibility for acting on feedback 	Effective Communicator <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He has excellent inter-personal and communication skills • He has an intuitive feel for intervention and non-intervention • He has an intuitive feel for the Spirit of the Game • He creates a sense of trust with all those involved in the Game • He takes the lead when needed • He shares his expertise with others